

Understanding the Special Education Process for Eligibility Determination: Preparing for an Initial IEP Meeting

Jewish Family Service of Metrowest's Opening Doors, Yesodot and The Bureau of Jewish Education invite parents with young children to an important workshop on the special education process. On Sunday, March 8th, parents will have the opportunity to learn helpful information from Reva Tankle, Ph.D., Clinical Neuropsychologist and Special Needs Advocate.

Dr. Tankle will discuss determination of eligibility, rights in circumstances of no eligibility, development of an initial individualized education plan (IEP), and what to expect after the first IEP.

Parents will also have the opportunity to meet and share with other families.

Sunday, March 8, 2009

7:00—8:30 pm

Jewish Family Service of Metrowest
475 Franklin Street, Suite 101, Framingham

This program is free and is open to all

*To RSVP for this program or to learn more about Opening Doors
please contact Mindee Meltzer at 508-875-3100x22 or mmeltzer@jfsmw.org*

This workshop is provided by Jewish Family Service of Metrowest's Special Needs Initiative, "Opening Doors: Inclusion in the Jewish Community" in partnership with Yesodot and The Bureau of Jewish Education. Thank you to Combined Jewish Philanthropies for their support and commitment to all families in our community.